

Increasing Collaboration Between Local Governments and Utilities on Installing Infrastructure

Cal Cities Annual Conference and Expo

September 21, 2023

Panel Participants

Moderator:
Justin Skarb

Vice President,
Government &
Community Affairs

Kenneth H. Rosenfield

Region 9 Director

Reed A. Reisner

Division Manager

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
EDISON®

Energy for What's Ahead™

Erik Gustafson

Public Works Director -
Operations & Maintenance

CITY of CHICO

Overview

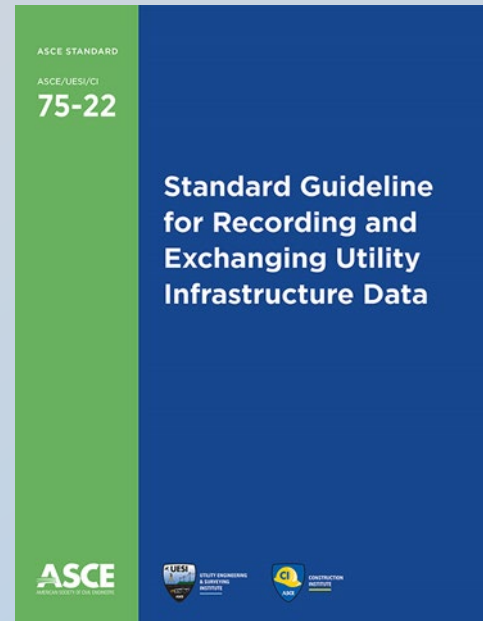

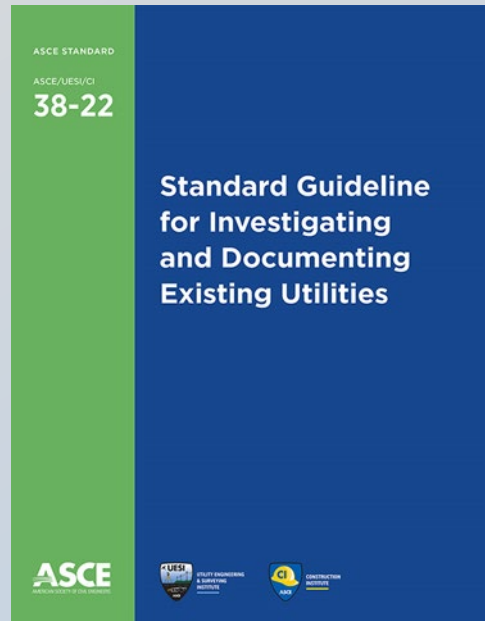

The Issue: Installing infrastructure is expensive and can disrupt daily life for residents and commerce. Delays in project construction schedules due to utility conflicts should be avoided to the maximum extent possible.

How can utilities and local governments improve on infrastructure project's coordination to reduce time and cost disruptions?

What best practices are available to facilitate scheduling and communication between local governments, utilities and community members?

Questions?

Resources:

Utility Engineering &
Surveying Institute (UESI)

ASCE.org