

On-Street Dining Risks

Managing Tensions Between Safety and Supporting Local Businesses

League of California Cities
Annual Conference
September 9, 2022

Panelists

David Wilson
City Manager, City of West Hollywood

Victor Manalo
Former Mayor, City of Artesia

Rob Reiter
Co-Founder, Storefront Safety Council

COMMUNITY BENEFITS OF ON-STREET DINING

RISKS OF ON-STREET DINING

CORONAVIRUS

CONTINUING COVERAGE

STREET CLOSED FOR OUTDOOR DINING PETERSBURG DESIGNATES AREA FOR OUTDOOR SEATING

RMG 7/7

BREAKING NEWS

CAR SLAMS INTO OUTDOOR DINING AREA

SANTA MONICA

#abc7eyewitness

Everyone loves outdoor dining!
Restaurants
need to take out the DANGER and install tested
safety barriers
to protect diners and employees.

STOREFRONT SAFETY COUNCIL
Working to End Vehicle into Building Crashes

STRATEGIES FOR MANAGING THE RISK

Call To Action

- Develop an approach that balances diner safety and economic concerns
- Utilize a permit process including indemnification language and insurance requirements to transfer the risk
- Close streets or limit outdoor dining to roadways with speed limits 30 mph and below
- Utilize crash-tested barriers to separate diners from moving vehicles
- Conduct regular inspections of outdoor dining installations

Questions

Contact Information

David Wilson
City Manager, City of West
Hollywood
(323) 848-6524
dwilson@weho.org

Rob Reiter
Co-Founder, Storefront Safety Council
(909) 964-2906
rob.reiter.pp@gmail.com

Victor Manalo
Former Mayor, City of Artesia
victor@victormanalo.com

Alex Mellor
Senior Risk Manager
California JPIA
(562) 631-0814
amellor@cjpia.org